Agreement for preparation of 2017 Fiduciary Income Tax Returns

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement for the year ended December 31, 2017 and to clarify the nature and extent of the services we will provide. In order to ensure understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask all clients for whom we prepare tax returns to confirm the following arrangements.

We will prepare your 2017 federal and state fiduciary income tax returns from information which you will furnish to us. We will make no audit or other verification of the data you submit, although we may need to ask you for clarification of some of the information. We will furnish you with questionnaires and/or worksheets to guide you in gathering the necessary information for us. Your use of such forms will assist us in keeping our fee to a minimum.

It is your responsibility to provide us with all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all the documents, canceled checks and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the fiduciary income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. We will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance as we find necessary for preparation of the income tax returns.

We will use our judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we will resolve such questions in your favor wherever possible.

The law provides various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability. If you would like information on the amount or circumstances of these penalties, please contact us.

Agreement for preparation of 2017 Fiduciary Income Tax Returns

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, we will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred.

Our fee for these services will be based upon the amount of time required at our standard billing rates, subject to a minimum fee of $615, plus out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation. A late charge of 1.5 % per month will be assessed on all past due amounts.

If the foregoing fairly sets forth your understanding, please sign this letter in the space indicated and return it to our office.

We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

Sincerely,

Larry K. Anderson, CPA
